What we did this week

Our first week of preschool was great and we learned a lot about our jobs and rules!

We did some special first day projects, measured how tall we are, and made our helping hands so that we can start doing classroom jobs!

We played the name game to learn our friends' names. We read a lot of books and sang a lot of songs!

We practiced counting with puzzles, songs, the calendar, and name tags.

We played outside in the beautiful weather!

We talked about how Jesus loves us! ☺

Notes and Reminders

- Tuesday's hot lunch: mostaccioli.
- Saturday, Aug. 28 9am-12pm: Trinity is having a free shredding and recycling event. Thursday, Sept. 2 6:30pm: All women and girls are invited to join our women's church group for fellowship time in the Parish Hall. Bring a snack to share!
- Please send your child a healthy lunch! We encourage them to eat their main food first (sandwich, crackers/meat/cheese, noodles, etc.), followed by fruits/vegetables, then cheese, yogurt, or other snacks. We save sugary items such as cookies, fruit snacks, and juice for after naptime.

Quotes of the Week.

Sophia: "I wanted to name my little brother 'Coconut'."

Travis: "I got 4578 money. That's a lot of money."

Maeve: "The caterpillars are going to go into their raccoons and turn into butterflies!"

Coming up NEXT WEEK

We will learn about our names. We will count the letters in our names and make a chart. We will do a project with the first letter in our names, explore magnet letters, read books about the alphabet, and sing a special ABC song. We will have our first Bible story about Jesus loving the little children!
